

Thousands of Free Worksheets On KidsKnowIt.com

Secret Messages Answers for Geography

Pg 242

The biosphere is defined as the aphere or area around the Earth where life exists

Pg 243

Life forms that make up the biosphere live on Earth as well as interact with it

Pg 244

Plant roots help keep soil from being carried away by rain water

Pg 245

Without life the planet Earth would have evolved very differently

Pg 246

The chemicals and elements found on Earth have changed very little in the last million years

Pg 247

Energy from the Sun is very important, without it, life could not exist

Pg 248

Some of the light that reaches the Earth is captured by plant life through the process of photosynthesis

Pg 249

Water is probably the most important substance needed to sustain life forms

Pg 250

The process of water moving through the environment is referred to as the hydrologic cycle