

Thousands of Free Worksheets On KidsKnowIt.com

Secret Messages Answers for Geography

Pg 265

Desert biomes are found throughout the Earth and are dry locations

Pg 266

Some of the plants living in the desert can actually store water within their bodies, such as cactus, camels, and some frogs found in Australia

Pg 267

Grassland biomes exist throughout the Earth and can be vast, expanding millions of miles

Pg 268

Tropical rain forests are found in locations that receive significant amounts of precipitation

Pg 267

Tropical rain forests are important to the health of Earth, and are responsible for replenishing a significant portion of the atmosphere's oxygen supply

Pg 268

Deciduous forests have long warm summers, and short cool winters

Pg 269

A deciduous tree is a tree that loses all its leaves in autumn

Pg 270

Coniferous forest ecosystems are found in regions that experience somewhat long and cold winters, with summers being much shorter

Pg 271

Coniferous biomes are found high on the top of mountains, where temperatures tend to be lower, and winter lasts longer